

aerial

From or in the air.

community

A group of people living in the same area or who share the same interests.

construction

The process of building something.

council

A group of people, representing a larger group of people, who have been selected to meet regularly and to make decisions, like a school council.

detective

A person whose job it is to gather information, solve crimes and catch criminals.

estate agent

A business that sells or rents buildings and land for their owners.

habitat

A natural environment where animals and plants live.

interview

A meeting when someone asks another person questions to find out information.

investigate

To look carefully at the facts and find out the truth.

landmark

An important building or place.

man-made

Something that has been made by people.

mayor

The elected head of a town or city who helps to lead the area’s council.

natural

Something that is dug out of the ground, grown, or taken from a living thing. Wood, leather and oil are natural materials.

pictogram

A chart that uses pictures to show data.

questionnaire

A list of questions that people are asked, to find out information about something.

retailer

A person or business that sells goods, such as groceries and cars.

route

A set of directions that can be used to get from one place to another.

survey

A way of gathering information from a group of people. Information can be gathered through a printed questionnaire, by mail, over the telephone, on the internet or in person.

symbol

A shape, sign or object that represents something else, such as a dove being used as a symbol of peace.

thatch

A roof that is built out of dry straw, reeds or twigs.